

New for Abila netFORUM Pro in August, 2017

General Updates

These are the general updates and improvements to netFORUM Pro for August, 2017. More information is available in the online help.

These product enhancements were introduced into netFORUM Pro as a direct result of customer feedback provided through the Ideas portal.

Event and Event Session Fees Display Online by Default

Event fees and event session fees now display in the online shopping cart by default.

- For an event, checking the Would you like to take registrations from customers via the web site check box checks the Is this fee available in the online shopping cart? check box under Fee Settings by default.

Online Information

Would you like to take registrations from customers via the web site?

When should this event be available for online purchase by customers?

When should this event be no longer available for online purchase by customers?

Is this fee available in the online shopping cart?

Is this the default fee? The default fee is typically the most used fee by registrants.

What order in the shopping cart list should this fee display?

- For an event session, checking the Sell Online check box checks the Post Online check box under Event - session Fee information by default.

Online Information

The session information will display online & be available for online registration if the post online check box is checked & the current date is between the web dates.
